Press release

15 March 2010

A cut above the rest

Abbot Fire Group were celebrating the opening of their office expansion on Friday 12 March. Rita Spada, Chief Executive of Milton Keynes & North Bucks Chamber of Commerce, cut the ribbon to mark the occasion.

Rita Spada commented “It’s a great privilege to be able to support local businesses that are consistently growing in what, for some industries, has been a difficult economic climate. Abbot Fire Group has demonstrated that consistent good service and dedication to their customers is delivering rewards, shown by the resulting business growth.”

Meeting business needs

The office expansion is a direct result of an increase in business, supported by local marketing initiatives and a presence at national trade exhibitions, coupled with on-going work for existing customers.

Customer service

The company has never lost a dis-satisfied customer since it started trading in 2002, Nigel Walton, Director at Abbot Fire Group says “Our emphasis has always been on focusing on the customer and providing a service second to none. With the growth in the business, and the expansion of the office to meet this demand, the business continues to go from strength to strength.”
